About Michelle Rodriguez:

Michelle Rodriguez is a former Commissioner on Peace Officers Standards and Training (POST), a lifelong resident of the 53rd Assembly District, and a proud mother of four grown children and a grandmother. In her role as POST Commissioner, Michelle helped establish training standards for California law enforcement officers and promoted professionalism and accountability. Her career has included roles at Inter Valley Health Plan, ProMed Healthcare Administrators, and various school districts where she supported community safety and educational programs. She also worked with young mothers at Valley View High School and served as Athletic Director for the Pomona Steelers football league. A survivor of gun violence and mother of a deputy sheriff, Michelle understands the struggles of working-class families and the need for safer neighborhoods. As a Neighborhood Watch organizer and community advocate, she is uniquely prepared to be a voice for public safety and the challenges her neighbors face in the district.
